LOCAL ITEMS.

THE CASE OF CAPTAIN STONE,-OUR caders are already advised that "Captain Stone, late of the Confederate Army' who was arrested some time ago, has been set at liberty. It will be remem bered that in June last Stone borrowed was entirely too loud. from Leonidas Bales, then at the Muddy, in this county, a wagon, two horses and harness, for the purpose of going to St. fancy articles. There were two tables George to buy provisions. Instead of for the sale of fancy articles. The first that, he went out to Salt Creek (seemingly having forgotten that there was any such place as St. George). At Salt Creek he was overtaken and brought back to St. George. He was tried before the Probate Court at that place, and found guilty of grand larceny. Subsequently the question of Probate jurisdiction in Itah came before Judes Bareman, A. h. the question of Prome Juneau of the District Court, who decided that Probate Courts had no jurisdiction in criminal cases, and so Stone was discharged, a writ of habeas corpus having been sued troubles of Stone do not end here. The wagon and team were frand-dently obtained in this county, and our have taken cognizance of the requisition is now in the Sherif a office for the arrest of Stone, who is now in Utah Territory. Of course, his conviction by the Probate Court having conviction by the Probate Court having been declared void, that proceeding amounts to nothing.

Poor Servants.—On Wednesday one of our tusiness men received a letter through the U. S. Mail, from Fillmore, a place on the line of the Salt Lake stages, having every facility for sending the mails promptly. This letter was mailed at Fillmore on the 22d of September, and reached this place on the 2d of October. A son of the writer of the letter spoken of started from Fillmore with a wagon A son of the writ-r of the letter spoken of started from Fillmore with a wagon load of produce, the lather baving, as he load of produce, the merchant here of his coming. The young man traveling with the ordinary speed of such convey-ances as that which he drove, and much more slowly of course than the stage, arved here two days before the letter. ay of the letter occasioned only a dollars. However, this is not the first time that a similar inconvenience has oc-corred. It happens almost every day. The people of the United States have very poor servants somewhere along the line. They should be found out and discharged.

FIRE WARDEN .- A petition has been in circulation for signatures, naking the Board of County Commissioners to pass an order empowering the Foremen of the companies composing the Fire Department of Pioche to appoint a suitable erson to act as Fire Warden for the town; and that the Board pass an order providing for the payment of the Fire war hen's services by the county; that said Fire Warden be appointed by the Foremen and subject to removal by them for a failure to perform his duty. The patition has received the signatures of some of our first citizens, and we hope will receive favorable consideration from the Board at its next meeting. The set forth in the p-tition, as also the fact that s large portion of the county's revenue is derived from taxes upon property in Pioche. The petition is at E. IMPROVEMENTS IN THE COURT-HOUSE. The stairs leading from the entrance hall to the second story of the Court-house have been newly covered with matting, which, in its turn, will be covered with canvas. Canvas is also being placed over the matting in the hall which leads to the court-room, and in the court-room itself, in the passage in front of the railing. Inside the railing, the floor has been newly carpeted, and presents a very pleasing appearance. A cross-bar has been placed at theentrance to the railing. that attorneys, clients, witnesses space allotted to them infringed upon by other parties, as has been the case here

LOVE AND BLOODSHED. - This morning at about 1 o'clock, two loving drunks were passing up Meadow Valley street. They met another drunk, and the three engaged in conversation. The two first seemed to be very jealous in their friend-ship for the third, and a dispute arose as to which was "bis (bic) best friend." The dispute ended in a fight between The third interiored, and the wo combatants directed their united orces against him. When the row ended the peace-maker's countenance and clothing bore marks of the fray as well as did those of the two others. Finally the friends took a few more "last drinks' together and went to bed.

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL .- From the Hos pital Stewart, we obtain the following: The total number in the Hospital Sept. 1st, was 16; number received during the mouth, 11; number discharged, 11; died, mouth, 11; number discharged, 11, dis-l; total number remaining in the bospi-tal October 1st, 15. INSPECTION NIGHT. Last night there was a considerable rowd at Hanley's Hall, principally of ladies, who came to inspect the beautiful articles displayed upon the tables. The American brass band, whose services had been volunteered, played several airs on the verandah, and afterward rendered some pretty music inside the hall. To this last there was the objection that it

The walls are profusely decorated with American flags, embroidery, laces, and for the sale of fancy articles. The first was presided over by Mrs. J. C. Clark, Mrs. Thompson, and Miss Maggie Carr. To name all the articles displayed upon it would require far more space than can be given. Among them were a China tea set of exquisite beauty, a rich dressing gown (gentleman's) and smoking cap, a very handsome pair of lady's riding boots, opera cloak, dressing, letter, and glove cases, a heavy silver pitcher, silver and glass truit dishes, a boquet of wax flowers (a most beautiful work, worth a visit to the fair to see), a child's toilet bureau, with mirror attached, a toilet bureau, with mirror attached, a well executed sun-pearl photograph of the Blessed Virgin, and child from the photograph gailery at Santa Clara College, some fine emb oidery for ladies' undercloth-ing, a miniature cooking store, with all the utensils appertaining thereto, and ready for actual use; but limited space does not allow anything like a complete list of the attractions of this table.

Soda will also be for sale to those who thirst. This evening will be the regular opening of the fair, and all are invited to spend there a few pleasant hours in aid

JUSTICE'S COURT. Yesterday Mr. Stansfield, of the Star Restaurant, upper Main street, appeared in the Justice's Court, he being charged with obstructing a public road in the rear of his building by recting there a fence and outhouses. Though the evidence showed that Stansfield had acted with a good intention, he had unwittingly transcressed the law, and the jury was obliged to bring in a verdict against bim.

In Ohio there is a People's State tick-et, and People's parties are being organ-ized rapidly throughout the different countries. The largest me-ting of the campaign was held lately at Cullicothe. and was addressed by some of the most eloquent speakers of the State. The authence seemed to be thoroughly in sympathy with the speakers and ex-pressed its approbation by frequent and enthusiastic applause.

A ROMANTIC INCIDENT.-The Union A ROMANTIC INCIDENT.—The Union Democrat, of Sonora, Cal., of the 27th, contains the marriage of Henry Pooley, of Tuolumno county, and Miss Catherine Oates, of Cornwall, England. The cremony was performed at the Sonora Hotel on the 23d inst. The bride had traveled seven thousand miles to meet her lover, whom she had not seen for eight years. When but a few miles remained to be gone over the stage upset. The brave girl reached her destination at midnight, and there in a strange place she found her lover and the minister waiting. To unpack her trunk, don her bridal robes, and listen to the ceremon which made her a wife, were the incidents of but a few moments.

The Pope has appointed thirty new cardinals. Their names are not to be publicly known till after his holiness' death. Should nothing happen to ren-der it expedient for Pius IX to publish their names before his death, the newly appointed prelates would, on that occurrence, be instantly acknowledged as co appointed prelates would, on that occur-esce, be instantly acknowledged as col-esques by their brethren, and therefore-gally empowered and formally invited to sit in the Conclave.

The United States steamer Tuscarora in sounding in the Pacific thirty miles from the Faradones, in a northwesterly direction, found a depth of water of over two miles, the thermometer showing a temperature of 35 degrees Fabrenheit.
